Professor Stephen Peté
List of publications

- Stephen Peté “South Africa’s Quixotic Hero and His Noble Quest – Constitutional Court Justice Albie Sachs and the Dream of a Rainbow Nation” 2010 Obiter Volume 31 Number 1 at pages 1 to 15.

- Stephen Allister Peté and Angela Diane Crocker “Apartheid in the food: An overview of the diverse social meanings attached to food and its consumption within South African prisons during the colonial and apartheid periods - Part One” 2010 Fundamina Volume 16 Number 2 at pages 86 to 97.

- Stephen Allister Peté and Angela Diane Crocker “Apartheid in the food: An overview of the diverse social meanings attached to food and its consumption within South African prisons during the colonial and apartheid periods - Part Two” 2011 Fundamina Volume 17 Number 1 at pages 112 to 124.

- Stephen Allister Peté and Sarah Pudifin “Spring was Rebellious, but It’s All Over Now – Public Art, Politics and the Law in Post-apartheid South Africa – Part One” 2011 Obiter Volume 32 Number 2 at pages 355 to 376.

- Stephen Allister Peté and Sarah Pudifin “Spring was Rebellious, but It’s All Over Now – Public Art, Politics and the Law in Post-apartheid South Africa – Part Two” 2011 Obiter Volume 32 Number 3 at pages 557 to 572.

- David Hulme and Stephen Allister Peté “A New Look at an Old Question – Precisely Where Does a Cause of Action Based on Contract or Delict ‘Arise’ in the Case of Civil Claims in the Magistrates’ and Small Claims Courts?” 2011 Obiter Volume 32 Number 2 at pages 304 to 321.

- Stephen Allister Peté and Angela Diane Crocker “Ancient Rituals and their Place in the Modern World: Culture, Masculinity and the Killing of Bulls – Part Two” 2012 Obiter Volume 33 Number 3 at pages 580 to 599.

- David Hulme and Stephen Peté “Houston, we have a problem! Gaps, Glitches and Gremlins in Recent Amendments to the Law of Civil Procedure Pertaining to the Magistrates’ Courts” 2012 De Jure Volume 45 Number 2 at pages 359 to 378.
David Hulme and Stephen Peté “Vox Populi? Vox Humbug! Rising Tension Between the South African Executive and Judiciary Considered in Historical Context – Part One” 2012 Potchefstroom Electronic Law Journal Volume 15 Number 5 at pages 16 to 43.

Stephen Peté "Like a Bad Penny: The Problem of Chronic Overcrowding in the Prisons of Colonial Natal 1845 to 1910 - Part One" 2015 Fundamina Volume 21 Number 1 at pages 102 to 118.

Stephen Peté "Socrates and Student Protest in Post-Apartheid South Africa - Part One" 2015 Journal for Juridical Science Volume 40 Number 1 at pages 1 to 18.
Stephen Peté "Socrates and Student Protest in Post-Apartheid South Africa - Part Two" 2015 Journal for Juridical Science Volume 40 Number 2 at pages 1 to 23.

Stephen Peté “Penal labour in colonial Natal – the fine line between convicts and labourers” 2008 Fundamina Volume 14 Number 2 at pages 66 to 83.

Angela Crocker and Stephen Peté “Cutting the Cane: A Comparative Analysis of the Struggle to Banish Corporal Punishment from Schools in Britain and South Africa (Part 1)” 2009 Obiter Volume 30 Number 1 at pages 44 to 62.

Angela Crocker and Stephen Peté “Cutting the Cane: A Comparative Analysis of the Struggle to Banish Corporal Punishment from Schools in Britain and South Africa (Part 2)” 2009 Obiter Volume 30 Number 2 at pages 224 to 242.

Stephen Peté “South Africa’s Quixotic Hero and His Noble Quest – Constitutional Court Justice Albie Sachs and the Dream of a Rainbow Nation” 2010 Obiter Volume 31 Number 1 at pages 1 to 15.

Stephen Peté and Angela Diane Crocker “Apartheid in the food: An overview of the diverse social meanings attached to food and its consumption within South African prisons during the colonial and apartheid periods (Part 1)” 2010 Fundamina Volume 16 Number 2 at pages 86 to 97.

Recent Papers Delivered:

- "Helping to shuffle deckchairs on the Titanic? Sustainable Development and the role of legal counsel in advising environmental decision makers” presented at the International Bar Association Conference held in Buenos Aires between 12 and 17 October 2008.
- “A New Look at an Old Question - Precisely Where Does a Cause of Action Based on Contract or Delict ‘Arise’?” presented with David Hulme at the conference of the Society of Law Teachers of South Africa, held in Pietermaritzburg, on 14 July 2009.
- “What’s new pussycat? The recurring debate in Britain and South Africa on law, private morality and the criminalisation/legalisation of prostitution” presented with Lee Stone at the conference of the Society of Law Teachers of South Africa, held in Pietermaritzburg, on 15 July 2009.
- “South Africa’s Quixotic Hero and His Noble Quest - Constitutional Court Justice Albie Sachs and the Dream of a Rainbow Nation” presented at the International Bar Association Conference held in Madrid between 4 and 9 October 2009.
- “Apartheid in the food – an overview of the diverse social meanings attached to food and its consumption within South African prisons during the colonial and apartheid periods” presented with Angela Crocker at the conference of the Association for the Study of Law, Culture and Humanities at Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island on 19 March 2010.
• “Spring was rebellious, but it’s all over now – public art, politics and the law in post-apartheid South Africa” presented at the conference of the Society of Law Teachers of South Africa, held in Stellenbosch, on 18 January 2011.

• “Ancient rituals and their place in the modern world: Culture, masculinity and the killing of bulls” presented with Angela Crocker at the conference of the Association for the Study of Law, Culture and Humanities at the University of Las Vegas, Nevada on 11 March 2011.

Co-Authored Books:

Edited Books:

Journal Articles - Sole Author:

Stephen Peté “The Good the Bad and the Warehoused - The Politics of Imprisonment During the Run-up to South Africa’s Second Democratic Election” South African Journal of Criminal Justice, Volume 13, Number 1, Year 2000, Pages 1 to 56.

Stephen Peté “Falling on Stony Ground: Importing the Penal Practices of Europe into the Prisons of Colonial Natal (Part 1)” 2006 Fundamina Volume 12 Number 2 at pages 100 to 112.

Stephen Peté “Penal labour in colonial Natal – the fine line between convicts and labourers” 2008 Fundamina Volume 14 Number 2 at pages 66 to 83.

Stephen Peté “South Africa’s Quixotic Hero and His Noble Quest – Constitutional Court Justice Albie Sachs and the Dream of a Rainbow Nation” 2010 Obiter Volume 31 Number 1 at pages 1 to 15.

Journal Articles - Co-Author:

• Max du Plessis and Stephen Peté “Kafka’s African Nightmare – Bureaucracy and the Law in Pre- and Post-apartheid South Africa” 2006 Journal for Juridical Science Volume 31 Number 1 at pages 39 to 60.

• Angela Crocker and Stephen Peté “Cutting the Cane: A Comparative Analysis of the Struggle to Banish Corporal Punishment from Schools in Britain and South Africa (Part 1)” 2009 Obiter Volume 30 Number 1 at pages 44 to 62.

• Angela Crocker and Stephen Peté “Cutting the Cane: A Comparative Analysis of the Struggle to Banish Corporal Punishment from Schools in Britain and South Africa (Part 2)” 2009 Obiter Volume 30 Number 2 at pages 224 to 242.

• Stephen Allister Peté and Angela Diane Crocker “Apartheid in the food: An overview of the diverse social meanings attached to food and its consumption within South African prisons during the colonial and apartheid periods (Part One)” 2010 Fundamina Volume 16 Number 2 at pages 86 to 97.

• Stephen Allister Peté and Angela Diane Crocker “Apartheid in the food: An overview of the diverse social meanings attached to food and its consumption within South African prisons during the colonial and apartheid periods (Part Two)” 2011 Fundamina Volume 17 Number 1 at pages 112 to 124.

• Stephen Allister Peté and Sarah Pudifin “Spring was Rebellious, but It’s All Over Now – Public Art, Politics and the Law in Post-apartheid South Africa – Part One” 2011 Obiter Volume 32 Number 2 at pages 355 to 376.
• Stephen Allister Peté and Sarah Pudifin “Spring was Rebellious, but It’s All Over Now – Public Art, Politics and the Law in Post-apartheid South Africa – Part Two” 2011 Obiter Volume 32 Number 3 at pages 557 to 572.

• David Hulme and Stephen Allister Peté “A New Look at an Old Question – Precisely Where Does a Cause of Action Based on Contract or Delict ‘Arise’ in the Case of Civil Claims in the Magistrates’ and Small Claims Courts?” 2011 Obiter Volume 32 Number 2 at pages 304 to 321.

• Stephen Allister Peté and Angela Diane Crocker “Ancient Rituals and their Place in the Modern World: Culture, Masculinity and the Killing of Bulls – Part One” 2012 Obiter Volume 33 Number 2 at pages 278 to 296.

• Stephen Allister Peté and Angela Diane Crocker “Ancient Rituals and their Place in the Modern World: Culture, Masculinity and the Killing of Bulls – Part Two” 2012 Obiter Volume 33 Number 3 at pages 580 to 599.

• David Hulme and Stephen Peté “Houston, we have a problem! Gaps, Glitches and Gremlins in Recent Amendments to the Law of Civil Procedure Pertaining to the Magistrates’ Courts” 2012 De Jure Volume 45 Number 2 at pages 359 to 378.

• David Hulme and Stephen Peté “Vox Populi? Vox Humbug! Rising Tension Between the South African Executive and Judiciary Considered in Historical Context – Part One” 2012 Potchefstroom Electronic Law Journal Volume 15 Number 5 at pages 16 to 43.

Chapters in Books:

• Stephen Peté and Max du Plessis “International Law and Reparations for the Atlantic Slave Trade – A Case Study in Legal Obfuscation” 2006 South African Yearbook of International Law Volume 31 at pages 243 to 262.

Conference Papers:

• National Reporter for the Republic of South Africa in the subject area of sentencing at the XVIth Congress of the International Academy of Comparative Law Brisbane, Australia, held from 14 to 20 July 2002.

• International Bar Association Conference held in Prague from 25 to 30 September 2005 – paper presented with Max du Plessis entitled Awakening from Kafka’s Nightmare – Bureaucracy and the Courts in Post-Apartheid South Africa.

• Conference on Human Rights in the Prisons of Africa held under the auspices of the University of the Western Cape, Ghent University and Utrecht University held in Cape Town on 21 October 2005 – paper presented entitled A Brief History of Human Rights in the Prisons of Africa.

• “Letting Go Of The Lash: The Extraordinary Tenacity and Prolonged Decline of Judicial Corporal Punishment in Britain and Its Former Colonies in Africa” presented with Angela Crocker at the conference of the Association for the Study of Law, Culture and Humanities in San Francisco on 28 March 2008.

• "Helping to shuffle deckchairs on the Titanic? Sustainable Development and the role of legal counsel in advising environmental decision makers” presented at the International Bar Association Conference held in Buenos Aires between 12 and 17 October 2008.

• “A New Look at an Old Question - Precisely Where Does a Cause of Action Based on Contract or Delict ‘Arise’?” presented with David Hulme at the conference of the Society of Law Teachers of South Africa, held in Pietermaritzburg, on 14 July 2009.

• “What’s new pussycat? The recurring debate in Britain and South Africa on law, private morality and the criminalisation/legalisation of prostitution” presented with Lee Stone at the conference of the Society of Law Teachers of South Africa, held in Pietermaritzburg, on 15 July 2009.

• “South Africa’s Quixotic Hero and His Noble Quest - Constitutional Court Justice Albie Sachs and the Dream of a Rainbow Nation” presented at the International Bar Association Conference held in Madrid between 4 and 9 October 2009.

• “Apartheid in the food – an overview of the diverse social meanings attached to food and its consumption within South African prisons during the colonial and apartheid periods” presented with Angela Crocker at the conference of the Association for the Study of Law, Culture and Humanities at Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island on 19 March 2010.

• “Spring was rebellious, but it’s all over now – public art, politics and the law in post-apartheid South Africa” presented at the conference of the Society of Law Teachers of South Africa, held in Stellenbosch, on 18 January 2011.

• “Ancient rituals and their place in the modern world: Culture, masculinity and the killing of bulls” presented with Angela Crocker at the conference of the Association for the Study of Law, Culture and Humanities at the University of Las Vegas, Nevada on 11 March 2011.

• “Ancient rituals and their place in the modern world: Culture, masculinity and the killing of bulls” presented at the conference of the Commonwealth Legal Education Association, held at the School of Law, Howard College, on 14 April 2013.

• "Lessons from History - Why do certain emerging democracies provide particularly fertile ground for the abuse of office by public officials and other forms of corruption” presented with David Hulme at the conference of the Commonwealth Legal Education Association, held at the School of Law, Howard College, on 14 April 2013.

• “Ancient rituals and their place in the modern world: Culture, masculinity and the killing of bulls” public lecture presented at the Durban Institute of Technology on 21 March 2013.